Artificers' Exchange

For Historical Connections & Collaborations

Learn & Do Here

Welcome to Artificers' Exchange!

Artificers" Exchange is an institution facilitating the exchange of information, skills, interpretation, activities, and products pertaining specifically to California's history, 19th century history in general, and the early to mid-20th century history as it pertains to the town of Columbia.

As you participate in what we offer, we hope to enrich your understanding and increase your appreciation for the skills, creativity, craftsmanship, resilience, and perseverance of the people of past. The agents of Artificers" Exchange invite you to learn from the past to thereby better live in the present.

Just Ask: The best way to learn is to ask a question. Ask one of your own or choose one from the "Just Ask" list. Your answer will be a short chat or demonstration.

Families / Teachers: Short hands-on activities help kids connect with true accounts of the gold rush. Prices make these doable! Teachers will want to include our mini-sessions in their field trip plans. Do contact us for customized sessions to fit your curriculum interests, student needs, or time constraints.

Tutoring & Classes: Our agent is a credentialed teacher with 25 years experience. If you need a tutor or would like a customized class in a small group setting, submit your request. A.E. offers both flexibility and basics to support an individual's progress.

Shop: We offer a variety of history-related kits and crafts of interest to a wide variety of ages and abilities so you can get it now and do it later.

11259 Jackson Street

Columbia, California 95310 (in Columbia SHP)

Proprietors: Floyd & Danette Øydegaard

OUR MISSION:

To help others make meaningful, interesting, useful, and enjoyable connections with the truth and skills of the past, especially that of Columbia SHP & California.

With understanding and appreciation of the past we are better prepared for the future.

Phone: 209-536-1859

E-mail: artificers@goldrush.com

Web: columbiagazette.com/artificers.html