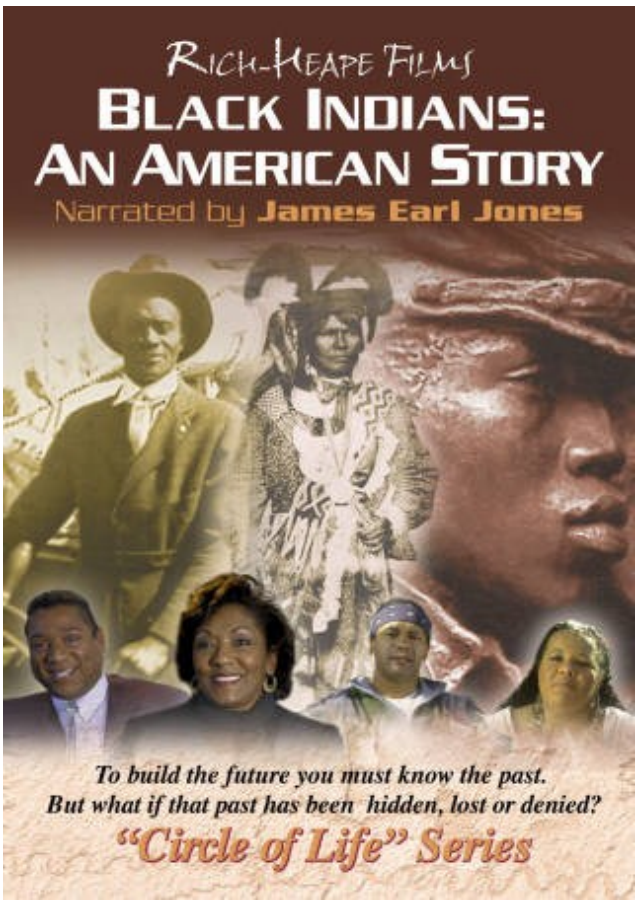
Native Film Screening
Black Indians: An American Story

Please Note

- In honor of Black History Month
- Free with regular museum admission
- Limited seating: first come, first served



Saturday
February
22nd

Showtimes:
11:00 &
2:00

Black Indians brings to light a forgotten part of America's past—the cultural and ethnic fusion of Native and African Americans.

State Indian Museum

at the corner of 26th and K Streets in midtown Sacramento

Find us on: facebook

2618 K Street
Sacramento, CA 95816

Phone: 916-324-0971

www.parks.ca.gov/indianmuseum