

The San Joaquin County Historical Society & Museum
is pleased to present . . .

PRESERVATION MATTERS!
A WORKSHOP WITH THE STATE OFFICE OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION

THURSDAY, MARCH 20TH, 2008

3:00 P.M. – 5:30 P.M.

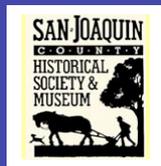

For all interested in community heritage,
historic preservation and land use planning,
you are invited to attend a free informative workshop
on the economic benefits of preservation.

Historic Preservation Program
Overview: a checklist for success,
What is a Historical Resource and
What Does Landmark Status Mean?,
Survey Savvy,
Economic and Community
Benefits of Preservation,

Local efforts will be highlighted, including Preserving California's Japantowns survey of Lodi's historic Japantown and the preservation/reuse of Clement's Odd Fellows Hall.

Light refreshments will be served.

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY MUSEUM
1 1793 MICKE GROVE ROAD, LODI, CA 95240

RSVP BY PHONE (209) 331-2055
OR EMAIL: :INFO@SANJOAQUINHISTORY.ORG

$3 PARKING FEE PER VEHICLE

Workshop sponsored by: City of Lodi Improvement Committee, San Joaquin Historical Society & Museum, CA State Office of Historic Preservation and Preserving California's Japantowns