Public Input Narrowed to Final Choice

Building a Park at Taylor Yard--- Final Plan to be Unveiled

WHAT: Press Conference -- California State Parks and the City of Los Angeles, along with various elected officials, will formally unveil what has become the public consensus plan for a new park at Taylor Yard. The plan results from numerous public meetings and workshops where the community voiced preferences and park planners narrowed those choices to a final conceptual layout. (Large design maps will be unveiled, with handouts.)

WHEN: Friday, November 14, 2003 – 9:30 A.M.

WHERE: Los Angeles City Hall – City Council Media Room

WHO: State Senator Gil Cedillo
State Assemblymember Jackie Goldberg
State Parks Director Ruth Coleman
Los Angeles Deputy Mayor Barbara Sandoval
Los Angeles City Councilman Ed Reyes
Los Angeles City Rec. & Parks GM Manuel Mollinedo
Various Community Members

PUBLIC MEETING TO FOLLOW

The plan unveiled to the press as listed above, will be presented to the community in an open-house format on Tuesday, November 18, 2003, from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m., at the Cypress Park Recreation Center, 2630 Pepper Avenue, Los Angeles, California. State Parks and City of Los Angeles park planners will be available to explain the final concept presented and the timeline for construction. # # #
