

GET ON BOARD 2008!

STAGECOACH DAYS at LAS FLORES

CAMP PENDLETON HISTORY MUSEUMS

join California State Parks and its partner organizations celebrating the importance of 19th century stage lines on the 150th anniversary of the Butterfield Overland Mail Stage:

20 SEPTEMBER – Families welcome 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to visit the Las Flores Adobe National Historic Landmark along the Seeley Stage Line San Diego to Los Angeles route. Enjoy reenactors in period clothing, candle making, historic crafts, art projects for children, music, period encampments, guided tours. Period attire encouraged. For FREE access tickets email erik.limbal@usmc.mil (760-725-5758) not later than 10 September. Sponsored by the Rancho Santa Margarita y Las Flores Docents.

11 OCTOBER – Western Hoedown at Las Flores Adobe 4:00 to 9:00 p.m. REAL WESTERN BBQ, music, Barn Dance, Silent Auction, period reenactors, tall tales of the Seeley stage lines, guided tours. Mail your check for $50 for each person in your group to: CPHS 10555 Meadow Glen Way East, Escondido, CA 92026. Letter of acknowledgment with tickets, map and directions will follow once checks are received. For more information, please contact Howard Blair at hgblair@cox.net, Steve Fisher at fisheracs@aol.com, or Wayne Eggleston at heritage@marinemonument.com. All proceeds to complete Las Flores restoration. Sponsored by Camp Pendleton Historic Society, 501(c)3 corporation; www.camppendletonhistoricalsociety.org