10th Street between "L" and "N" Streets, Sacramento.

When: Saturday, November 1, 2008
10:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Special Event Admission: Free

STATE CAPITOL-The State Capitol Museum, California State Parks with support of the California State Capitol Museum Volunteer Association, invite the public to attend the 1906 Election Living History Program on November 1, 2008 from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

\Get a glimpse into California's history when the Election Day Living History Event brings the past alive. The California State Capitol will be turned back to 1906 with costumed docents dressed as the four gubernatorial candidates – Theodore Bell (Democrat), James Gillett (Republican), William Langdon (Independence League), and Austin Lewis (Socialist). Each of the candidates will give a campaign speech in 15-minute plays repeated throughout the day. Women suffragettes will be campaigning for the right to vote. Visitors will have the opportunity to vote for the candidate of their choice. This event is for everyone, with special activities for children. Free admission. For more information, call (916) 324-0333.
