California State Capitol Museum Proudly Announces 2009 Holiday Music Program

Free Musical Productions Run Daily November 30 thru December 23

SACRAMENTO, Calif. -- From flute choirs to accordion ensembles, Victorian quartets to bell ringers, guests to the State Capitol will enjoy a variety of free holiday musical entertainment as part of the Capitol's Annual Holiday Music Program that runs Monday, November 30 through Wednesday, December 23, 2009.

Since 1996, the State Capitol Museum and California State Parks in association with the California State Legislature Joint Rules Committee, the Governors Office and the Department of General Services have worked to restore holiday traditions inside the Capitol. To set the stage, early 20th century floral arrangements, provided by the California State Capitol Museum Volunteer Association, create a lovely backdrop to holiday musical performances in the Capitol Rotunda. Visitors will experience different musical presentations each day in the Rotunda decked with glowing decorations and the vintage floral arrangements.

An updated schedule of performances can be found on the Capitol Museum website at www.capitolmuseum.ca.gov or by calling (916) 324-0333. All daily performances are subject to cancellation due to Capitol operations.

About the California State Capitol Museum
