Attention movie buffs and pop culture enthusiasts! As a special, one-day only debut happening at the California State Railroad Museum on Sunday, May 15, you are invited to be among the first to get a glimpse of an amazing fine art collection inspired by the movies of Pixar Animation Studios. Presented by Stage Nine Entertainment's The Vault gallery, Museum guests will be treated to fantastically visual and vibrant fine art based on eleven hugely popular animated classics such as "Buzz Lightyear of Star Command," "Finding Nemo," "The Incredibles," "Toy Story" and more. Plus, many of the talented artists will be on-hand at the Railroad Museum to talk about their works and, upon request, sign the compelling artwork that will be available at a discount this one day only. For more information about Disney Fine Art's The Pixar Collection, visit www.stagenine.com. For more information about the worldwide debut or Railroad Museum in general, please call 916-445-6645 or visit www.csrnf.org.
