36th Annual Adobe Day Set at William B. Ide Adobe State Historic Park

RED BLUFF, Calif. - The 36th Annual Adobe Day hosted by the Ide Adobe Interpretive Association is scheduled Saturday, October 10, 2015 at William B. Ide Adobe State Historic Park from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. The theme of this year's event will be "Rough and Tumble Times."

As you cross the "bridge of time" into the park, visitors will get a glimpse into the 1850s lifestyle and enjoy hands-on activities such as candle making, doll construction, adobe brick making, and many other live demonstrations.

Live music will be presented by the Ide Adobe Players. You can sit back and enjoy the show as dancers demonstrate the Virginia reel. Refreshments and items from the general store will be available for purchase during the event.

Ide Adobe is historic park that preserves and interprets a rancho that dates to 1852. The park honors William B. Ide, a prominent figure in early California history. It is located on the Sacramento River on Adobe Road off Interstate 5 in Red Bluff.

Entry fee is $5 for adults, $2 for children (17 and under), and children under 4 are free.

Proceeds will go to the Ide Adobe Interpretive Association to help fund the interpretive programs at the park.
