

It's an ancient Native American site, contains the ruins of an early adobe, is the location of a Bear Flag Revolt battle, became a famous rancho and estate, and later became the Chosen Family commune.

OLOMPALI STATE HISTORIC PARK
26TH ANNUAL

HERITAGE DAY
Sunday, May 15, 2011

10 am to 4 pm

Celebrate the natural splendor and the fascinating history of one of California's most historic State Parks

- History and Nature Walks
- Native American Dancers
- Petaluma Quilter's Guild
- Novato Junior Horsemen
- Marin History Museum
- Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria
- Sonoma County Wildlife Rescue
- Wildcare Terwilliger Nature Van
- 4-H Club and Farm Animals
- Marin Museum of the American Indian

Activities, demonstrations, wildflower walks, history talks and more!
Free vanilla ice cream, thanks to Clover Stornetta Farms

Silent Auction! Bring the family and a picnic lunch.
Food, bottled water and soda available for purchase.

No charge for the event, and $8.00 to park.

For more information, see www.olompali.org or call 707-762-9715

Presented in partnership by The Olompali People and California State Parks

