two (2) miles. All sites have water and a pit toilet. Bring camp stoves or charcoal as no wood fires are permitted on the island. The sites are open year-round. A snack bar is open during the summer and occasionally on weekends in the winter.

GETTING THERE
Public ferries run to the island from San Francisco and Tiburon. During the summer season, ferries also run from Vallejo, Oakland and Alameda. For information on ferry schedules and fares from Tiburon, call the Angel Island-Tiburon Ferry Company at (415) 435-2131. For ferry schedules and fares from San Francisco, Vallejo, Oakland or Alameda, call the Blue and Gold Fleet at (415) 773-1188. During the off-season, schedules vary—call for current information.

Private boats must be moored or anchored offshore after sunset. Ayala Cove has 24 mooring buoys (see map). Be sure to bring a dingy and arrange with a ranger for overnight storage if you plan to camp on the island.

RESERVATION PERIOD: ALL YEAR
- $7.00 per night off-season
- $10.00 per night in-season (4/1 to 10/31)
- $11.00 per night Friday and Saturday
- $20.00 per night for kayak camping.

REGISTRATION
- Check in: 2:00 p.m.
- Check out: 12:00 noon
You must register at the park office in Ayala Cove before sunset. For your safety and for park security reasons, all night travel on the island is restricted to the area indicated on the map.

LENGTH OF STAY
There is a maximum of seven consecutive days per stay—no more than 30 days per year. Occupancy is limited to eight people per campsite.

PHONE IN RESERVATIONS
You may call 1-800-444-PARK (7275) (TDD 1-800-274-7275) for your reservation. You may charge your reservation to your credit card, or if you prefer you may mail your check or money order by deferred payment.

When you make a phone reservation, you must verify that the park, dates, length of stay and any discounts you should receive are correct before you hang up the phone. Once you hang up, your reservation is final, and to make any changes you must cancel your reservation, pay the cancellation fee, make a new reservation and pay another reservation fee.

CREDIT CARD RESERVATIONS
Reservations are accepted at 8:00 a.m., seven months before the date you want to camp, up to the close of business ten days before your arrival date.

DEFERRED PAYMENT RESERVATIONS
On the first day of each month, campers will have access to an entire month of available dates, up to seven months in advance.

Your check or money order for payment in full on your campsite and reservation fees must be received within seven days from the date you made your reservation. Mail your payment to ReserveAmerica, P.O. Box 1510, Rancho Cordova, CA 95741-1510. If payment is not received within seven days, your reservation will be automatically cancelled. NEITHER THE RESERVATION SERVICE NOR THE STATE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR U.S. POSTAL SERVICE DELIVERIES. When your payment is received, your ticket will be mailed to you.

NOTE: When you receive your ticket, make sure that the park and dates are correct. If you find an error, call Customer Account Services immediately at 1-800-695-2269.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS
Disabled Discount Pass. A pass is available that permits a year-round 50% discount on fees for use of State Park System campsites (except for permanent residents). Under Part 22, California Civil Code, income from this permit is available to permanently disabled persons. Once eligibility has been established and a pass has been issued, camping reservations may be made as detailed in this brochure, subject to payment of the full reservation fee and full cancellation fee. For further information, requests must be addressed to: Disabled Discount Pass Program, California State Parks, P.O. Box 942896, Sacramento, CA 94296-0001.

Disabled Veterans/P.O.W. Pass. A pass is available to honorably discharged veterans with 70% or more service-connected disability or a service-connected disability rated 100% for reasons of unemployability. Or a pass is available if the pass will be issued permitting use of most State Park facilities, including boat launching. Once a pass has been issued, reservations may be made subject to the non-refundable reservation fee. For further information, requests must be addressed to: Disabled Veterans/P.O.W. Pass Program, California State Parks, P.O. Box 942896, Sacramento, CA 94296-0001.

Senior Citizen Discount. A person aged 62 or older may receive a $2.00 per night campsite fee discount if the discount is requested at the time a reservation is made. The campsite must be paid for and occupied by the eligible person. Proof of eligibility for the discount must be shown when registering at the park.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS
When you cancel a reservation, you will be refunded the amount you paid for your campsite, less the non-refundable $7.50 reservation fee. A $7.00 cancellation fee will be deducted from your refund. If you need to cancel your reservation and wish to re-book a new reservation during the same call, no cancellation fee will be charged.

• Cancel by mail. Write a letter, and mail it to ReserveAmerica, Customer Account Services, P.O. Box 1510, Rancho Cordova, CA 95741-1510. It must be received at least eight days before your arrival date or you will forfeit the campsite fee for your arrival date.
• Cancel by phone. Call Customer Account Services at 1-800-695-2269 and you will be refunded the amount you paid for your campsite, less the non-refundable $7.50 reservation fee and a $7.00 cancellation fee, or
• Cancel by phone within 24 hours of 2:00 p.m. on your arrival date. Call Customer Account Services at 1-800-695-2269, and you will be refunded the amount you paid for your campsite, less the non-refundable $7.50 reservation fee and a $7.00 cancellation fee.

There are no refunds for cancellations made after 2:00 p.m. on your arrival date. Your reserved campsite will be held by the park until 2:00 p.m. the day after your arrival date. If you miss your first day of camping later than 2:00 p.m. on the next day, you must call the park each day to hold the remainder of your reservation. If you do not appear by then and do not call, you will be considered a "No Show." Your reservation will be cancelled by the park, and no refund will be made.

IF YOU MUST LEAVE THE PARK ONE OR MORE DAYS EARLY—You must check out before 12:00 noon. You will need your copy of the cancelled Camp Registration receipt to receive a refund for your unused nights, less a $7.00 cancellation fee. There are no exchanges; you must keep your account until your account has been credited or your refund received, which may take 30 days or more.
