ANNUAL WILDFLOWER BRUNCH

It's time to mark your calendar and purchase your tickets for the delicious made-to-order omelets offered by the Clear Lake State Park Interpretive Association (CLSPIA) at the annual Wildflower Brunch. The event is planned for Saturday, April 28, 2018, with brunch being served from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. There will be 12 different fillings to choose for your cooked-to-order omelet, plus an enticing selection of pastries and an array of fresh fruits, along with orange juice and coffee.

There will be about seven stoves cooking the omelets and several 'celebrity chefs' to man the stoves. There is talk that there might be some heated competition among some of the 'chefs' to see who might make the best-tasting and best-looking omelets. Congressman Mike Thompson, his wife Jan, and his District Representative Brad Onorato are going to be part of the chef line-up.

David Neft will again be entertaining us with his amazing selection of piano tunes during the Brunch. He welcomes requests and never disappoints!

Brad Barnwell, CLSPIA board member and amateur naturalist and photographer, will be present at 9 AM with his spotting scope to give all those interested a good look at our resident nesting pair of Osprey. In keeping with CLSPIA's goal of education and interpretation of nature, Brad will talk about the natural history of the Osprey.

Plan on coming out to Clear Lake State Park on Saturday, April 28, 2018, to enjoy the beautiful surroundings while savoring a plump omelet and decadent pastry along with fruit, orange juice and coffee. The visitor center will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. that day with lots of new things to see and buy. Reservations are requested, but tickets can be purchased at the event; tickets are $20.00. Please contact us on line or by phone at:
