

Make History Come Alive!

Docent Training and Historical Lectures at Sonoma State Historic Park

California State Parks invites friendly people who love to learn to become volunteer historical docents at the General M. G. Vallejo Home.

Docents are specially trained to lead tours and explain exhibits.

Volunteering offers many benefits!

Help share our region's rich history with new and interesting people, enhance your public speaking skills, and contribute to your community!

Become a docent or audit a lecture (docents lead tours 3 hours/month).

Schedule:

- July 23rd 10:00am -2:30pm
 - Tour: Lachryma Montis
 - Lecture: The Vallejo Family
- July 24th 10:00am – 2:00pm
 - Tour: Vallejo Home Grounds and Plants
 - Lecture: Vallejo Home and the 1850-1890 American Era.
- August 6th 10:00am – Noon
 - Seminar: Interactive Interpretive Skills and Techniques

For more information and to RSVP or register for this free training, contact Joleen Ossello at (707) 939-2149 or joleen.ossello@parks.ca.gov

California State Parks supports equal access. Prior to arrival, individuals with disabilities who need assistance should contact the park at the number above.