Auburn State Recreation Area
Hunting Information

Hunting is allowed within Auburn State Recreation Area with the following restrictions:

SEASON: Hunting is allowed during the regular hunting season established by the Fish and Game Commission.

HOURS: Generally, hunting times are between half an hour before sunrise and half an hour after sunset except spring turkey season, where shooting hours end at 4:00 p.m.

SPECIES: Deer, California quail, dove, bandtail pigeon and wild turkey

METHOD: Only shotguns, rifles, and bows and arrows may be used, and only in compliance with all Fish and Game Commission regulations and licensing requirements. Except for shotguns and rifles used for hunting during the hunting season, all firearms, loaded or unloaded, are prohibited in the Auburn State Recreation Area (CCR 4113).

TRAILS: Many recreational trails run through open hunting areas. For safety purposes, please stay at least 150 yards away from recreational trails.
