

Bart's Black Skillet and Mark Twain
Join To Offer School Groups
A healthy lunch and Lecture by Mark Twain
$8.50 per child

Lunch includes choice of Turkey, Ham or Cheese Sandwich, Chips, Fruit, Drink & Dessert

Spring & Summer 2011

Columbia State Historic Park at Bart's Black Skillet

The Gold Rush Town of Columbia!

--With--

MARK TWAIN

_____ Call 209-532-1479 for Reservations _____

The well known author and humorist Samuel Langhorne Clemens, known to many as "Mark Twain," returns to Columbia to deliver a lecture on his adventures out West, including mining on the Nevada Comstock, big trouble in San Francisco, pocket mining near Tuttletown, and spinning yarns at Jack Ass Hill in Tuolumne County.

Presenting Pat Kaunert as Mark Twain