

Julia Morgan's ASILOMAR

April 19th, 2014
11:00 am—4:00 pm

Commemorating the 150-year anniversary of California State Parks, a FREE, day-long program of activities highlighting the architectural designs Julia Morgan built for the YWCA at Asilomar .

A posh lineup of FREE activities include:

- ◆ Visit Tours of several historic Julia Morgan buildings
- ◆ Learn Julia Morgan Lecture by Hearst Castle historian, Victoria Kastner
- ◆ Enjoy Music and Fashions of the 1910s-1930s presented by the SF Bay Area's Royal Society Jazz Orchestra and the Greater Bay Area Costumers Guild.
- ◆ Stay Historic Julia Morgan Lodging available For information on lodging specials visit the Asilomar website: www.visitasilomar.com or call 1-888-635-5310.

All "Julia Morgan's Asilomar" event activities are free, but reservations are necessary for attendance at the lecture/fashion show due to limited seating.

Please contact Lisa Bradford for event schedule and registration at (831) 646-6443, or visit the website: www.parks.ca.gov/asilomar.

Luncheon or dinner tickets for the event day are available for purchase - please contact the Asilomar Conference Grounds front desk: (831) 372-8016.

