

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 2, 2014

Contact: Ryann Gill
951-789-1278
Ryan.gill@parks.ca.gov

Grand Opening of Chino Hills SP Discovery Center

On September 28, 2104 Chino Hills State Park will celebrate the 150th anniversary of California State Parks by hosting the grand opening of the Chino Hills State Park Discovery Center featuring newly completed exhibits. The Discovery Center showcases the vast biodiversity located within Chino Hills SP, who's numerous varied vegetation habitats create a "hot spot" of diverse wildlife and ecosystems. The event will include a ribbon cutting ceremony and exhibits will be opened to the public immediately after.

Guests will have the opportunity to meet the Chino Hills SP staff and volunteers, walk the newly upgraded nature trail, and learn about nature from a State Park Environmental Scientist. The event will also feature a presentation on the origins of State Parks entitled Preserving Yosemite 150 Years Ago: Re-examining the Origins of America's Best Idea.

The event is free to the public. Time of the event is 10:00a.m.-12:00p.m.

For more information and updates please call: 951-780-6222

For energy efficient recreation –
California State Parks on the Internet: <<http://www.parks.ca.gov>>

