Victorian Christmas Crafts Workshop

CITY – Sonoma, CA

California State Parks in cooperation with the Sonoma-Petaluma State Historic Parks Association presents the 22nd annual Victorian Christmas Crafts Workshop. All ages are invited to Sonoma State Historic Park - General Vallejo's Home at Third Street West and West Spain Street on Sunday, November 20th from 11am to 3pm to create holiday ornaments and crafts. The event occurs rain or shine. This is held outdoors, please dress for the weather.

The Victorian Christmas Crafts Workshop offers children a creative and educational hands-on experience to be shared with parents and adults. Finished crafts are perfect for small, exclusive gifts and handmade tree ornaments, with glue and glitter galore! Admission is $3 per adult and Children are FREE. To defray the cost of supplies, the ornaments and crafts will cost 25 cents to $1 each. Take time to enjoy complimentary refreshments, live music, a tour of General Vallejo's estate, and help welcome a special visitor "from the North Pole." The Sonoma Valley Women's Club will generously provide homemade cookies for the event.

The workshop is dedicated to the memory of Kay Archibald who for over 10 years, served tirelessly as the event's devoted volunteer Chair. Like Kay, you can help to create a fun and welcoming environment by volunteering at this wonderful event. Interested? Please call Event Chair Linda Davis at (707) 833-6896 or contact Sonoma State Historic Park Volunteer Coordinator Jennifer Hanson at (707) 939-2149 or jhanson@parks.ca.gov.

California State Parks supports equal access. Prior to arrival, visitors who need assistance should contact: Sonoma State Historic Park Guide Jim Danaher at (707) 939-9559.
