Press Advisory

Officials to Announce key Acquisition in Chino Hills State Park Expansion

State officials and local supporters Tuesday will announce the purchase of a key piece of property linking Chino Hills State Park with the 649-acre Coal Canyon property that became part of the state park system last year. The latest acquisition will preserve one of the last remaining viable wildlife corridors in all of Southern California.

WHAT: News conference to announce acquisition of property linking Chino Hills State Park with the 649-acre Coal Canyon property.

WHO: Officials with California State Parks and Hills for Everyone, the non-profit group supporting expansion of the park.

WHEN: 1 p.m., Tuesday, July 3, 2001.

WHERE: Site of new park property. East on Highway 91 from Yorba Linda, or west from Riverside, take the Coal Canyon exit, just west of junction of Highways 91 and 71. Go north to the parking area. Guides will be there to help with parking and directions.
