Employment Opportunities

California State Parks

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

STATE PARK RANGERS AND LIFEGUARDS

State Park Rangers and Lifeguards are trained peace officers with statewide peace officer authority. They help operate and manage State Park units and perform the following duties:

- Interpret natural, historic and cultural resources
- Perform first aid
- Assist and advise park visitors regarding rules and regulations
- Operate and maintain emergency equipment
- Perform cliff rescues and underwater diving
- Rescue persons or vessels in distress (Lifeguards)

We are looking for men and women interested in challenges, opportunities and fulfilling careers as State Park Rangers and State Park Lifeguards.

Few places in the world exist like California, where one can enjoy majestic mountains, wide-open deserts, cool forests, sunny seashores and clear lakes. California State Parks preserves the best of California for all to enjoy, whether it's outdoor fun, peaceful relaxation or learning more about history, nature and California. State Park Rangers and Lifeguards help maintain, interpret and protect California's more than 270 state parks for future generations.

Take the challenge.

Join California State Parks.
