- An individual (private citizen, elected official, or professional) who has made a significant contribution in support of trails or greenways and has been publically involved with trail issues for at least seven years.

Organizations or agencies that:

- Initiated or implemented successful trail or greenway events.
- Initiated or implemented active programs that benefited trails or greenways.
- Reached significant milestones in the development or reconstruction of unique trail or greenway projects.
- Reached significant milestones in trail or greenway acquisitions.
- Reached significant milestones in unique trail or greenway planning projects.

Individuals, organizations, agencies, or businesses that:

- Achieved excellence in design and creative approaches in developing trails or greenway information systems using technology, social media, or websites.
- Established innovative programs to engage children and youth in outdoor experiences using, but not limited solely to, trails.
- Established innovative programs to engage underserved communities in outdoor experiences using, but not limited solely to, trails.

All nominees must exemplify integrity, and social and environmental responsibility.

Any individual, organization, or agency may make a nomination in one or more of the award categories. The full eligibility requirements are detailed on the following pages. Nominations must be received by January 7, 2019 to be considered for an award in 2019. Award recipients will be notified by February 28, 2019, and will receive recognition at the awards ceremony on April 25, 2019.

Lifetime Volunteer Achievement Award	Presented to an individual who has volunteered considerable personal time for more than 25 years on behalf of trails or greenways, and who has been a leader with statewide impact on trails or greenways in California. This category is not necessarily recognized every year.
Lifetime Professional Achievement Award	Presented to a park or trails professional who has worked far above and beyond their required duties for more than 25 years on behalf of trails or greenways, and who has been a leader with statewide impact on trails or greenways in California. This category is not necessarily recognized every year.
Trail Champion Award	Presented to an individual who has made significant contributions in support of trails or greenways in California. The award is open to persons (volunteer, elected official, or professional) who supported trails through design, development, maintenance, management, or operation of trails in urban, suburban, or rural areas. Nominees must have been publically involved with trail issues for at least seven years. If the nominee is a trail professional (employed by a public agency, non-profit, or private business whose primary job is trails or greenway-related), there must be significant contributions beyond normal work duties. The award is not open to anyone who has previously received a state, national, or international trails or greenway award. Extra consideration will be given for accomplishments related to the creation of a specific “product” such as a trail or greenway, or trail or greenway program.
Merit Award (Acquisition)	Given in recognition of a unique trail or greenway acquisition project that reached a significant milestone in 2018. Nominees should be the organization or agency that initiated and implemented the project.
Merit Award (Development)	Given in recognition of a unique trail or greenway development or reconstruction project that reached a significant milestone in 2018. Nominees should be the organization or agency that initiated and implemented the project.
Merit Award (Event)	Given in recognition of a special and successful trail or greenway event held in 2018. Nominees should be the organization or agency that initiated and implemented the event. Note: California Trail Days and National Trails Day events are eligible for nomination in this category.
Merit Award (Kids & Trails)	This award honors an individual, organization, agency, or business that established an innovative program in 2018 specifically designed to engage children and youth in outdoor experiences using trails. Creative, interpretive, educational, and/or recreational design components are included along with innovative programs that stimulate kids’ imaginations and promote their interest in and appreciation for the natural environment while developing healthy lifestyles.
Merit Award (Planning)	Given in recognition of a unique trail or greenway planning project that reached a significant milestone in 2018. Nominees should be the organization or agency that initiated and implemented the project.
Merit Award (Program)	Given in recognition of an important trail or greenway program that was established in 2018. Nominees should be the organization or agency that initiated and implemented the program.
Merit Award (Underserved Communities)	This award honors an individual, organization, agency, or business that established an innovative program in 2018 specifically designed to engage underserved communities in outdoor experiences using trails. Creative, interpretive, educational, and/or recreational design components are included along with innovative programs that encourage families and others to venture into open spaces and promote their interest in and appreciation for the natural environment while developing healthy lifestyles.
Social Media, Websites and Technology Award	Presented to an organization, agency, or business that has used social media in a new and creative way, developed a website that has achieved overall excellence through design and concept, or made use of new technologies to advance the promotion or development of trails and greenways in 2018.

All nominees must exemplify integrity, and social and environmental responsibility.

Awards Committee's Nomination Instructions

Nominations must be received by January 7, 2019

- Complete the Awards Nomination Cover Form.
- Provide a narrative no more than two pages using single-spaced 12-point, Arial font. The first paragraph should be a concise summary (max. 60 words) of the person or project. If the nominee is selected for an award, the paragraph will be used to develop the award caption and program description.
- Include no more than six attachments in support of the nomination. Attachments may include brochures, maps, photographs, articles, letters of support, or similar materials.
- The total nomination package (form, narrative, and attachments) should not exceed ten pages.
- Do not send letters of support separately. If letters of support are included, they will be considered "attachments," limited as described above.
- Completed nomination packages must arrive via email (trails@parks.ca.gov) by January 7, 2019 to be considered. Award recipients will be notified by February 28th, and will be recognized at the April 25, 2019 awards event.

Each award recipient will receive a complimentary ticket to the awards event on Wednesday, April 25, 2019. If space is available, award recipients will also receive a shared exhibit table at the conference.

Nominations within each category will be ranked by the judges from lowest to highest based on the responses to the questions on pages 5-6. The nominee with the highest ranking within each category will be that category's award recipient. NOTE, the "award year" is the full calendar year prior to California Trails & Greenways 2019. Decisions by the Awards Committee are considered final.
