California State Parks Announces Camping and Day Use Concession Opportunity at Brannan Island State Recreation Area

SACRAMENTO, Calif. –California State Parks is accepting proposals for a ten-year camping and day use concession contract with the option to extend for an additional ten years at Brannan Island State Recreation Area (SRA). Proposals are being accepted starting November 1, 2021 through January 18, 2022, by 2 p.m.

An optional tour of the concession premises will be held at 10:00 a.m. on November 16, 2021 at Brannan Island State Recreation Area. For information on how to participate, please contact Diablo Range District Superintendent Eduardo Guaracha at (925) 455-7872.

Brannan Island SRA is located in the California Delta region and provides a variety of recreational opportunities including fishing, camping, swimming, boating, windsurfing, and wildlife viewing.

A copy of the RFP is available for download from Cal e-Procure at www.caleprocure.ca.gov. A pre-proposal presentation is available online at Current Concession Opportunities on the California State Parks webpage beginning November 1, 2021.
