State Parks Announces Concession Opportunity at Prairie City State Vehicular Recreation Area

Rancho Cordova, CA – The California Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) is accepting proposals for a motorsports facility concession contract at Prairie City State Vehicular Recreation Area located in Sacramento County. A public meeting is scheduled on December 7, 2017 at 6 p.m. in Rancho Cordova for those wishing to learn more about the concession contract.

The Request for Proposals (RFP) is being issued for a five-year concession contract with the option to extend for five additional years. The concession contract will manage high-quality races, practice and training events as well as schedule the facility for professional and amateur riders of different ages and skill levels.

Proposals are due no later than 2:00 PM on Monday, January 15, 2018 at the Department of Parks and Recreation, Room 1431, 1416 9th Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.

A copy of the RFP is available for download from the California State Parks Concessions Program website at www.parks.ca.gov/concessions. For more information, please contact Kevin White at (916) 654-8924 or kevin.white@parks.ca.gov.
