Railroad Museum Foundation Teams Up with B Street Theatre to Present “B Street & Brews at the Museum” on July 21

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Thirsty for some fun? The California State Railroad Museum Foundation is partnering with B Street Theatre to present a first-time event titled “B Street & Brews at the Museum” at the California State Railroad Museum on Friday evening, July 21, 2017, from 6 to 9 p.m.

The lively and vibrant evening will be highlighted by improv/sketch comedy – a series of short comedy scenes or vignettes -- performed by a group of talented actors from B Street Theatre. Surrounded by a stunning backdrop of full-scale locomotives in the Museum’s Roundhouse, the sketch comedy vignettes will include all original material created by B Street Theatre that will weave in railroad and history related content in unique and interesting ways.

Guests will also enjoy beer sampling from popular local breweries including Track 7 Brewing Company and Hoppy Brewing Company. Additionally, the Chando’s Tacos food truck will be on-site with tacos available for purchase by interested event attendees.

“B Street & Brews at the Museum” tickets are available for guests ages 21 and over, cost $20 per person and $15 for members when purchased online in advance; or $25 at the door (if still available). For more information or to purchase tickets online, please visit www.californiarailroad.museum/events/b-street-and-brews.

About the California State Railroad Museum Foundation

The California State Railroad Museum Foundation (CSRMF) is an official cooperating association with California State Parks and a 501(3)c organization. CSRMF provides funding for ongoing support of numerous programs at the California State Railroad Museum in Old Sacramento, Railtown 1897 State Historic Park in Jamestown, and the future Railroad Technology Museum. The mission of the Foundation is to generate revenue and awareness on behalf of its destinations, while supporting the preservation, interpretation and promotion of our railroad heritage.
