

FREE 4 HOUR

Oil / Hazardous Substances Emergency Response

HAZWOPER First Responder AWARENESS TRAINING

for Southern California
Marina & Yacht Club Operators

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Wednesday June 6th 8:00am to 12:30pm

Dockweiler Youth Center
12505 Vista del Mar, Playa del Rey, CA 90293

Free parking available at the facility. The Center will provide you with a pass.

Registration Deadline: June 1
Participants will receive a class certificate of completion.

Instructors: MST1 Duskin Deichl, USCG Federal On-Scene Coordinator's Representative

Cindy Murphy, California Department of Fish & Wildlife, Office of Spill Prevention & Response (OSPR) Grants Contract Manager

Bob Butchart, California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (CAL OES) Maritime

This FREE 4-hour course will provide marina and yacht club operators with the knowledge to work in an oil spill response outside of a hazardous zone. Completion of this course satisfies Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulation 29 CFR 1910.120(q)(6)(i) first responder operation course and no prerequisites are needed.

You Must Register To Attend

(First come first serve, maximum capacity 40 people)

To register contact Vivian Matuk at (415) 904-6905 or via email: vmatuk@coastal.ca.gov

United States
Coast Guard
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Partnering Organizations