California State Parks invites friendly people who are inspired to volunteer.

Discover the stories of Sonoma State Historic Park, Mission San Francisco Solano, the Sonoma Barracks, General Vallejo's Home, the Toscano Hotel & Kitchen and the Petaluma Adobe State Historic Park.

Volunteering offers many benefits! Meet new and interesting people, enhance your public speaking skills, contribute to your community, participate in heritage events, and share our region's rich history.

Historical Docent Tour Guide

Meet our dedicated docent team at enrichment lectures or on a tour, learn about the program and find out if your interests fit with the State Park's Mission.

- Training includes lectures, guided-tours, interpretive exercises and mentors who assist with tour development.
- Long-term volunteers require an initial application and criminal history background check along with a commitment of at least four hours per month prior to beginning service.

Additional Volunteer Opportunities

- Cultural Resource Assistance, Bookstore Sales, Grounds Keeping & Special Events

Help us find the perfect opportunity for you!
