Sonoma State Historic Park

Explore the Seasonal Marshlands of the Park ~ Saturday, January 6, Noon-3:00pm
Bike Path, near the Vallejo Home, 363 3rd St West | Joleen Ossello (707) 938-9547

During the wet season a large part of the Park's open space turns to marsh and wetlands. Come out to learn and explore this changing environment. See what different plant and pond life exists in the area. Look for the State Park truck along the bike path between the Vallejo Home driveway and the ballfields. Suggested: Rain boots or water-proof shoes. This free program runs continuously between noon and 3pm. No reservation required.

CBC4Kids: Winter/Christmas Bird Count Program ~ Saturday, January 13, 9:00am-1:00pm

Sonoma Barracks, 36 East Spain Street | Joleen Ossello (707) 938-9547

Join us in celebrating and estimating the winter birds of the park. Sonoma Birding is sponsoring and leading this fun and educational event. An orientation and brief training are held at the Sonoma Barracks video room and courtyard area along with a surprise birding craft. Kids ages 5-14, with an adult, are encouraged to participate in this free event! More information at: www.sonomabirding.com Please sign up at: sonomanature@gmail.com

Campfire Program ~ Saturday, January 20, 4:30pm-5:30pm

Sonoma Barracks Courtyard, Spain St & First St East | Joleen Ossello (707) 938-9547

Gather 'round the warm campfire in this historic setting. Join in the fun with a short talk, songs and, of course, a marshmallow roast! All ages, free of charge, steady rain cancels.
