Fort Tejon Field Trip Free 2018

Dear teachers, parents and educational leaders,

Fort Tejon State Historic Park offers a unique alternative to the overnight Student Living History Program and Day Programs. The Self- Guided Trip is free for K-12 schools. We invite you to enroll your class in this free field trip. Take your students on a trip back in time to 1850s California by touring the site and remnants of life at Fort Tejon, a Western U.S. Army outpost.

The Free Program has more dates available to schedule your trip. Programs run for one day, during park hours. Groups that reserve spaces beforehand are given free admission to the park, including access to our picnic grounds, and a downloadable scavenger hunt. Please submit your preferred and alternate trip dates as soon as possible, as reservations are made on a first come, first serve basis.

Student Living History Program Free requirements and facts:

- The Field Trip is during park hours.
- Students and adults are given free access to the historic grounds.

Scavenger Hunt is downloadable

I look forward to seeing you and your students at Fort Tejon State Historic Park for an unforgettable educational experience.

Sincerely,
Fort Tejon State Historic Park
