OLD TOWN SAN DIEGO STATE HISTORIC PARK.

ACCESSIBLE GUIDE.

Welcome

Old Town San Diego State Historic Park presents the opportunity to experience the history of early San Diego by providing a connection to the past. Some of the historic structures, other buildings, and areas in the park may have steps, narrow doors, and high thresholds that may present limitations to access. Park and concession staff and volunteers are available to provide assistance upon request.

In an effort to enhance the visitor experience, there are various improvements planned, including repairs, modifications, leveling, and stabilizing boardwalks, ramps, and other exterior walkways.

Work to improve these conditions is underway. This brochure provides information on currently accessible features and routes.

The State Historic Park encompasses several city blocks. The primary path of travel throughout the park is on firm-surface dirt and paved roads and pathways. Some people may have difficulty navigating the routes due to occasional unevenness and excessive cross slope. The map on the reverse side of this brochure identifies generally accessible routes of travel—including the location of accessible parking, building entrances, and restrooms.

State Historic Park & Concession Museums

The McCoy House Museum is fully accessible. Other generally accessible facilities include the Colorado House (Wells Fargo History Museum), First San Diego Courthouse, La Casa de Estudillo and its garden, La Casa de Machado y Silvas, Robinson-Rose Visitor Information Center, and the first floor of the Seeley Stable Museum. Staff or volunteers are available at the Robinson-Rose Visitor Information Center, McCoy and Seeley Stable Museum, Colorado House, and La Casa de Estudillo during regular park hours. Upon request they are available to provide assistance at these and other locations.

Museum hours may change seasonally. You may confirm the operating hours on the park website www.parks.ca.gov/oldtownsandiego or by calling 619-220-5422.

Park Facilities

California State Parks supports equal access. Prior to arrival, visitors with disabilities who need assistance should contact the park at 619-220-5422.

Accessible routes are marked on the map on this brochure, which can be found at all wayfinding panels, at the Robinson-Rose Visitor Information Center, and on the Park website. The parking lots have designated accessible parking, although Lot C may have excessive cross slopes that may present a barrier in the accessible spaces.

While in the park, if you need assistance, please do not hesitate to ask park staff, volunteers, or concession employees for accommodation.

Please recycle this brochure by returning it to any museum or holder at a wayfinding kiosk.

This publication is available in alternate format by contacting the San Diego Coast District Office at 619-688-3260.

Park Concessions

The Old Town Theatre, the Cosmopolitan Hotel, and many retail stores and restaurants are accessible. Some aisles may be narrow and access to some merchandise may require assistance. When requested, staff is available to provide assistance.

Park Programs, Tours, and Exhibits
