An Old Town San Diego Christmas December 12-15, 2007 Nightly 6 - 9pm

Celebrate the 57th Annual Las Posadas and 1st Annual Fiesta Navidad throughout historic Old Town San Diego.

Designed for the whole family, this free event is a gift to all San Diegans.

Come enjoy a variety of music, museums, tours and revel in the true spirit of the season.

If you can only attend one holiday activity this year, this is the one to attend

The Fiesta includes:

- Opening night begins with one of the oldest Las Posadas in the United States • Wednesday, December 12, at 6pm in Heritage Park, 2470 Heritage Park Row
- Pastorela concerts in the Adobe Chapel
- Church choirs, bell ringers, mariachis, early California and other traditional holiday music
- Breaking of piñatas and visits from Santa Claus
- Holiday specific shopping opportunities, numerous free museum programs, and participating restaurants will highlight traditional holiday dishes
- Program guide with map to experience all the festivities
- Historic Old Town encompasses State, County and City parks, along with over 100 shops, 34 restaurants and 16 museums
