California State Historical Resources Commission To Consider Eight Properties for Action

WHAT: California State Historical Resources Commission will consider six nominations for federal historic designation, one removal of federal historic designation, and one nomination for state historic designation. Nominations and photographs of properties under consideration are available at http://ohp.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=24368.

National Register of Historic Places nominations scheduled for action include:

Chicano Park

San Diego

San Diego County

This assemblage of murals commemorates the events of April 22, 1970 when members of the Barrio Logan community first occupied the land under the approach ramps of the San Diego-Coronado Bay Bridge, creating a community park. The property is nominated for its significance to the Chicano Movement and as an assemblage of murals representing the masters of Chicano Movement artwork.

Fox Theatre Inglewood

Inglewood

Los Angeles County

This 1949 movie theater represents the work of master architect S. Charles Lee, whose work was seminal in the development of American movie theater design, and designer Carl G. Moeller, whose design elements led to the development of the "Skouras Style" of movie theater.

Merwin House

Pasadena

Los Angeles County

This 1905 Craftsman bungalow represents the work of master architect Charles and Henry Greene.

Monte Vista

and Diamond Mountain Vineyard

Calistoga

Napa County

This six building farm complex and twenty-six acre vineyard located in the mountains above Napa Valley in Calistoga illustrates trends relating to the development of the agriculture and viticulture industry in Napa County during the late nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth century. Typical of this period Monte Vista functioned as a small mountaintop vineyard operated by a single family until Prohibition when wine production all but ceased in Napa County.

Southern California Sanitarium Historic District

Pasadena

Los Angeles County

A premiere facility for the treatment of mental disorders that emphasized a healthy physical and social environment for its patients. It played a significant role in regional health care and is associated with the architectural, economic, and social history of the City of Pasadena in the period 1904-1929.

Tubbs, Alfred L., Winery

Calistoga vicinity

Napa County

The c. 1888 stone winery in the style of an English Gothic castle gatehouse was built into the hillside of the north slope of Mount St. Helena. In addition to its association with the maturation of the wine industry in the Napa Valley in the late nineteenth century, the winery now known as Chateau Montelena experienced a remarkable resurgence in the late 1970s that influenced the wine industry throughout California.

Donner-Houghton House

San Jose

Santa Clara County

This property has been requested for removal due to its destruction by fire.

California Register of Historical Resources nominations scheduled for action include:

California Aerospace Museum

Los Angeles

Los Angeles County

Constructed between 1982 and 1984, this museum was a seminal work of internationally acclaimed master architect Frank Gehry.
