

News Release

For Immediate Release
Date: January 25, 2012

Contact: Victor Bjelajac
Phone No.: 415-388-2719
Email Address: vbjelajac@parks.ca.gov

Marin State Parks Announces Service Updates

NOVATO – The Marin District of California State Parks is notifying park visitors of the following service changes for selected park units within their jurisdiction:

- Beginning January 30, 2012, Olompali State Historic Park in Novato will be open 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M. Saturdays and Sundays only. The park will be closed to public admittance Mondays - Fridays. For more information and periodic updates please check www.parks.ca.gov/olompali
- Reservations at Samuel P. Taylor State Park in Lagunitas can now be made through Reserve America for family campsites, Devil's Gulch Group Campsites, and Redwood Grove Group Day Use for arrival dates beginning March 30, 2012. However certain service reductions remain implemented at the park. As such the park will be closed Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays of each week. The closure includes campgrounds, picnic areas, parking lots and restrooms, and is expected to last until March 29, 2012. During this time, family campsites 1 - 25 will operate on a first-come, first-served basis Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights only. All other sites are closed through March 29, 2012. For more information and periodic updates please check www.parks.ca.gov/samueltaylor

###

For energy efficient recreation –
California State Parks on the Internet: <http://www.parks.ca.gov>

