A Voyage to California, the Sandwich Islands, and Around the World in the Years 1826-1829: Auguste Duhaut-Cilly

Translated from the French by August Fruge and Neal Harlow

French sea captain Auguste Duhaut-Cilly, spent nearly two years, 1827 and 1828, on the coast of California trying to dispose of his goods. The personable and observant captain kept a fascinating, descriptive diary in which he recounted his dealings with padres, soldiers, of the Native Americans, life at sea, and the natural life of coastal California. To read this superb translation is to make a personal visit to Mexican California.
